Loss of Funding - Performance by CBC under this Agreement may be dependent upon the appropriation and allotment of funds by the Texas State Legislature (“the Legislature”) and allocation of funds by CBC. If the Legislature fails to appropriate or allot the necessary funds, or CBC fails to allocate the necessary funds, then CBC will issue written notice to Contractor and CBC may terminate this Agreement without further duty or obligation hereunder. Confidentiality and Safeguarding of CBC Records; Press Releases; Public Information - Under this Agreement, Contractor may (1) create, (2) receive from or on behalf of CBC, or (3) have access to, records or record systems (collectively, “CBC Records”). If CBC Records are subject to FERPA, (1) CBC designates Contractor as a CBC official with a legitimate educational interest in CBC Records, and (2) Contractor acknowledges that its improper disclosure or re-disclosure of personally identifiable information from CBC Records will result in Contractor’s exclusion from eligibility to contract with CBC for at least five (5) years. Contractor represents, warrants, and agrees that it will: (1) hold CBC Records in strict confidence and will not use or disclose CBC Records except as (a) permitted or required by this Agreement, (b) required by Applicable Laws, or (c) otherwise authorized by CBC in writing; (2) safeguard CBC Records according to reasonable administrative, physical and technical standards (such as standards established by (i) the National Institute of Standards and Technology and (ii) the Center for Internet Security, as well as the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards) that are no less rigorous than the standards by which Contractor protects its own confidential information; (3) continually monitor its operations and take any action necessary to assure that CBC Records are safeguarded and the confidentiality of CBC Records is maintained in accordance with all Applicable Laws, including FERPA, ITEPA and the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, and the terms of this Agreement; and (4) comply with CBC’s rules, policies, and procedures regarding access to and use of CBC’s computer systems. At the request of CBC, Contractor agrees to provide CBC with a written summary of the procedures Contractor uses to safeguard and maintain the confidentiality of CBC Records.

Notice of Impermissible Use - If an impermissible use or disclosure of any CBC Records occurs, Contractor will provide written notice to CBC within one (1) business day after Contractor’s discovery of that use or disclosure. Contractor will promptly provide CBC with all information requested by CBC regarding the impermissible use or disclosure.

Return of CBC Records - Contractor agrees that within thirty (30) days after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, for any reason, all CBC Records created or received from or on behalf of CBC will be (1) returned to CBC, with no copies retained by Contractor; or (2) if return is not feasible, destroyed. Twenty (20) days before destruction of any CBC Records, Contractor will provide CBC with written notice of Contractor’s intent to destroy CBC Records. Within five (5) days after destruction, Contractor will confirm to CBC in writing the destruction of CBC Records. Any such destruction will be done in compliance with the requirements of ITEPA or the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

Disclosure - If Contractor discloses any CBC Records to a subcontractor or agent, Contractor will require the subcontractor or agent to comply with the same restrictions and obligations as are imposed on Contractor by this Section.

Press Releases - Except when defined as part of the Work, Contractor will not make any press releases, public statements, or advertisement referring to the Project or the engagement of Contractor as an independent contractor of CBC in connection with the Project, or release any information relative to the Project for publication, advertisement or any other purpose without the prior written approval of CBC.

Termination - This Agreement shall remain in effect until (1) the Agreement expires by its terms or (2) the Agreement is terminated by mutual agreement of CBC and Contractor. In the event of a breach or default of the Agreement and/or the procurement solicitation by Contractor, CBC reserves the right to enforce the performance of the Agreement and/or the procurement solicitation in any manner prescribed by law or deemed to be in the best interest of CBC. CBC further reserves the right to terminate the Agreement immediately in the event Contractor fails to: (1) meet schedules, deadlines, and/or delivery dates within the time specified in this Agreement, the procurement solicitation, and/or a purchase or work order; (2) make any payments owed; or (3) otherwise perform in accordance with this Agreement and/or the procurement solicitation. CBC also reserves the right to terminate the Agreement immediately, with written notice to Contractor, if CBC believes, in its sole discretion, that it is in the best interest of CBC to do so. Contractor agrees that CBC shall not be liable for damages in the event that CBC declares Contractor to be in default or breach of this Agreement and/or the procurement solicitation. Contractor further agrees that upon termination of the Agreement for any reason, Contractor shall, in good faith and with reasonable cooperation, aid in the transition to any new arrangement and/or vendor.
Duration - The restrictions and obligations under this Section will survive expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason. FERPA Compliance – Contractor agrees, to the extent applicable, to comply with all laws regarding the confidentiality of the students’ educational records, including but not limited to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (“FERPA”) and to comply with all applicable laws in safeguarding any non-public, sensitive, and/or confidential information of the College’s faculty and students which is in its control.

Binding Effect - This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

Right to Audit Records - Contractor agrees that CBC, or any of its duly authorized representatives, at any time during the term of this Agreement, will have access to, and the right to audit and examine, any pertinent books, documents, papers, and records of Contractor (such as sales receipts, salary lists, itemized expenses and disbursements, time reports, equipment charges, overtime reports, etc.), and related Contractor's charges incurred in its performance under this Agreement. Such records will be kept by Contractor for a period of four (4) years after Final Payment under this Agreement. Contractor agrees to refund to CBC any overpayments disclosed by any audits.

Appeal/Protest Process - Any Contractor who submitted a proposal may appeal CBC’s award, if the appeal is based on deviations from laws, rules, regulations, or CBC Board policies. CBC Board Policy GB (Local) applies to any Contractor wishing to appeal a proposal and/or award of a contract. In accordance with Policy GB (Local), a Contractor shall submit a complaint/appeal form by hand-delivery, fax, or U.S. mail, to CBC’s CFO. Complaints/appeals must be received by the close of business on or before the 15th CBC business day after award of the contract. In the event Contractor is unsure about the award of the contract, it is the Contractor’s responsibility to contact CBC on the next business day after the award is announced and verify details concerning the award.

Breach of Contract Claims

To the extent that Chapter 2260, Texas Government Code, as it may be amended from time to time ("Chapter 2260"), is applicable to this Agreement and is not preempted by other Applicable Laws, the dispute resolution process provided for in Chapter 2260 will be used, as further described herein, by CBC and Contractor to attempt to resolve any claim for breach of contract made by Contractor:

Contractor’s claims for breach of this Agreement that the parties cannot resolve pursuant to other provisions of this Agreement or in the ordinary course of business will be submitted to the negotiation process provided in Subchapter B of Chapter 2260. To initiate the process, Contractor will submit written notice, as required by Subchapter B of Chapter 2260, to CBC in accordance with the notice provisions in this Agreement. Contractor's notice will specifically state that the provisions of Subchapter B of Chapter 2260 are being invoked, the date and nature of the event giving rise to the claim, the specific contract provision that CBC allegedly breached, the amount of damages Contractor seeks, and the method used to calculate the damages. Compliance by Contractor with Subchapter B of Chapter 2260 is a required prerequisite to Contractor's filing of a contested case proceeding under Subchapter
C of Chapter 2260. The Director of Purchasing and Contracts of CBC, or the other officer of CBC as may be designated from time to time by CBC by written notice thereof to Contractor in accordance with the notice provisions in this Agreement, will examine Contractor's claim and any counterclaim and negotiate with Contractor in an effort to resolve the claims.

If the parties are unable to resolve their disputes under Section 8, the contested case process provided in Subchapter C of Chapter 2260 is Contractor’s sole and exclusive process for seeking a remedy for any and all of Contractor's claims for breach of this Agreement by CBC.

Compliance with the contested case process provided in Subchapter C of Chapter 2260 is a required prerequisite to seeking consent to sue from the Legislature under Chapter 107, Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code. The parties hereto specifically agree that (i) neither the execution of this Agreement by CBC nor any other conduct, action or inaction of any representative of CBC relating to this Agreement constitutes or is intended to constitute a waiver of CBC's or the state's sovereign immunity to suit and (ii) CBC has not waived its right to seek redress in the courts.

The submission, processing and resolution of Contractor’s claim is governed by the published rules adopted by the Texas Attorney General pursuant to Chapter 2260, as currently effective, thereafter enacted or subsequently amended.

CBC and Contractor agree that any periods set forth in this Agreement for notice and cure of defaults are not waived.

Limitations - THE PARTIES ARE AWARE THAT THERE ARE CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY LIMITATIONS ON THE AUTHORITY OF CBC TO ENTER INTO CERTAIN TERMS AND CONDITIONS THAT MAY BE A PART OF THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THOSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO LIENS ON CBC’S PROPERTY; DISCLAIMERS AND LIMITATIONS OF WARRANTIES; DISCLAIMERS AND LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES; WAIVERS, DISCLAIMERS AND LIMITATIONS OF LEGAL RIGHTS, REMEDIES, REQUIREMENTS AND PROCESSES; LIMITATIONS OF PERIODS TO BRING LEGAL ACTION; GRANTING CONTROL OF LITIGATION OR SETTLEMENT TO ANOTHER PARTY; LIABILITY FOR ACTS OR OMISSIONS OF THIRD PARTIES; PAYMENT OF ATTORNEYS’ FEES; INDEMNITIES; AND CONFIDENTIALITY (COLLECTIVELY, THE “LIMITATIONS”), AND TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATED TO THE LIMITATIONS WILL NOT BE BINDING ON CBC EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT AUTHORIZED BY THE LAWS AND CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS.

Access to Documents - To the extent applicable to this Agreement, in accordance with Section 1861(v)(I)(i) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395x) as amended, and the provisions of 42 CFR Section 420.300, et seq., Contractor will allow, during and for a period of not less than four (4) years after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, access to this Agreement and its books, documents, and records; and contracts between Contractor and its subcontractors or related organizations, including books, documents and records relating to same, by the Comptroller General of the United States and their duly authorized representatives.
Notice of Participation - Pursuant to applicable law, including the Interlocal Cooperation Act Chapter 791 of the Texas Government Code), CBC may permit other governmental entities to “piggy-back” onto an existing contract between CBC and Vendor entered into as a result of this RFP. In the event that the Vendor’s proposal becomes an awarded Agreement, the Vendor’s proposal, including pricing information, may be provided to a requesting governmental entity desiring to establish separate, independent contracts with Vendor. Vendor expressly agrees that CBC may disclose Vendor’s proposal, including, but not limited to, pricing information, to other governmental entities. Governmental entities are authorized to enter into separate, independent contracts with Vendor that employ the same negotiated terms and conditions contained in an existing contract(s) between CBC and Vendor. However, there is no obligation on either party to participate unless both parties agree. If another governmental entity chooses to utilize a contract established by this procurement solicitation and subsequent Agreement, contracts will be awarded individually by those governmental entities, and goods/services would be provided under the same contract pricing and purchasing terms established by this procurement solicitation. Any such separate, independent contract developed as a result of this procurement solicitation and/or the Agreement is exclusively between such other governmental entity and Vendor and shall have no effect or impact on CBC or CBC’s contract with Vendor. It is expressly understood that CBC shall in no way be liable for the obligations of any other governmental entity contracting with Vendor pursuant to this section.

1.4 Clarifications and Interpretations

CBC may, in its sole discretion, respond in writing to written inquiries concerning this RFP. Only CBC’s responses that are made by formal written Addenda will be binding on CBC. Any verbal responses, written interpretations or clarifications other than Addenda to this RFP will be without legal effect. All Addenda issued by CBC prior to the Submittal Deadline will be and are hereby incorporated as a part of this RFP for all purposes.

Proposers are required to acknowledge receipt of each Addendum as specified in this Section. The Proposer must acknowledge all Addenda by completing, signing and returning the Addenda Checklist (ref. Section 4 of APPENDIX ONE). The Addenda Checklist must accompany the Proposer’s proposal. It is the Proposer’s responsibility to make sure they have obtained all addenda. Addenda, if any, will be posted on CBC’s website at http://coastalbend.edu/.

1.5 Proposal Evaluation Process

The evaluation of the Proposals shall be based on the requirements and percentages described in Section 2.3 of this RFP.

CBC will select Contractor by using the request for proposals process described in this Section. All proposals submitted by the Submittal Deadline accompanied by the number of completed and signed originals as required by this RFP will be opened publicly to identify the name of each Proposer submitting a proposal. Any proposals that are not submitted by the Submittal Date will be rejected by CBC as non-responsive due to material failure to comply with advertised specifications. After the opening of the proposals and upon completion of the initial review and evaluation of the proposals, CBC may invite one or more selected Proposers to participate in oral presentations. CBC will use commercially reasonable efforts to avoid public disclosure of the contents of a proposal prior to selection of Contractor.

CBC may make the selection of Contractor on the basis of the proposals initially submitted, without discussion, clarification or modification. In the alternative, CBC may make the selection of Contractor on the basis of negotiation with any of the Proposers.

CBC reserves the right to negotiate any commissions and/or fees with any intermediary or authorized representative.

CBC reserves the right to (a) enter into an agreement for all or any portion of the requirements and specifications set forth in this RFP with one or more Proposers, (b) reject any and all proposals and re-solicit proposals, or (c) reject any and all proposals and temporarily or permanently abandon this selection process, if deemed to be in the best interests of CBC.

1.6 Proposer’s Acceptance of Evaluation Methodology

By submitting a proposal, Proposer acknowledges (1) Proposer's acceptance of [a] the Proposal Evaluation Process (ref. Section 1.5 of this Section), [b] the Criteria for Selection (ref. Section 2.3 of this RFP), [c] the Specifications and Additional Questions (ref. Section 5 of this RFP), [d] and all other requirements and specifications set forth in this RFP; and (2) Proposer's recognition that some subjective judgments must be made by CBC during this RFP process.

1.7 No Reimbursement for Costs

Proposer acknowledges and accepts that any costs incurred from the Proposer’s participation in this RFP shall be at the sole risk and responsibility of the Proposer. Proposer understands and agrees that (1) this RFP is a solicitation for proposals and CBC has made no representation, written or oral, that one or more agreements with CBC will be awarded under this RFP; (2) CBC issues this RFP predicated on CBC’s anticipated requirements for the Services, and CBC has made no representation, written or oral, that any particular scope of services will actually be required by CBC; and (3) Proposer will bear, as its sole risk and responsibility, any cost that arises from Proposer’s preparation of a proposal in response to this RFP.

1.8 Eligible Respondents

Only individual firms or lawfully-formed business organizations may apply. CBC will contract only with the individual firm or formal organization that submits a Proposal in accordance with the requirements set forth herein.

1.9 Sales and Use Taxes

Section 151.311, Tax Code, as amended effective October 1, 1993, permits the purchase free of state sales and use taxes of tangible personal property to be incorporated into realty in the performance of a contract for an improvement to realty for certain exempt entities that include junior college districts. The section further permits the purchase tax free of tangible personal property (other than machinery or equipment and its accessories and repair and replacement parts) for use in the performance of such a contract if the property is “necessary and essential for the performance of the contract” and “completely consumed at the job site.” In addition, the section permits the purchase tax free of a tangible service for use in the performance of such a contract if the service is performed at the job site and if “the contract expressly requires the specific service to be provided or purchased by the person performing the contract” or “the service is integral to the performance of the contract.”

1.10 Proposal Validity Period

Each proposal must state that it will remain valid for CBC’s acceptance for a minimum of ninety (90) days after the Submittal Deadline to allow time for evaluation, selection, and any unforeseen delays.

1.11 Equal Opportunity Employer

CBC is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate in awarding contracts or employment of persons because of their race, sex, age, religion, national origin, veteran, disabled or handicap status or any other characteristic protected by law. CBC requires companies with which it conducts business to be equal opportunity employers and comply with all applicable federal, state and municipal laws and regulations regarding contracting and employment practices.

1.12 House Bill 1295

The Texas Legislature adopted House Bill 1295, which was added to Section 2252.908 of the Government Code. The law states that a governmental entity agency or state agency may not enter into certain contracts with a business entity unless the business submits a disclosure of interested parties (Form 1295). This disclosure requirement applies to a contract entered into on or after January 1, 2016.

If awarded a contract, the vendor may be required to complete and submit this form. CBC will be unable to execute a contract and services cannot be performed until the process is complete.

- CBC further reserves the right to award one or more contracts, in part or in whole, to a single or to multiple prospective vendors or proposers. The decision to award multiple contracts, award only one contract, or to make no awards rests solely with CBC. CBC may make multiple awards, and this fact should be taken into consideration by each proposer.

- CBC assumes no financial responsibility for any costs incurred by prospective vendors in developing and submitting a proposal or any amendments or addenda, participating in bid conferences, participating in any negotiation sessions or discussions, or any other costs incurred by proposers prior to award of a contract pursuant to this RFP.
CBC reserves the right to reject any and/or all proposals, to award contracts for individual products or services as may appear advantageous, and to negotiate separately in any manner necessary to serve the best interests of the College. CBC further reserves the right to accept, reject, or negotiate modifications in any terms of a proposed vendor’s proposal or any parts thereof. CBC further reserves the right to waive any formalities or technicalities if deemed in the best interest of the College. CBC also reserves the right as sole judge of quality and equality.

1.14 Felony Conviction Notification

Proposers are hereby notified that in accordance with Section 44.034 of the Texas Education Code, a person or business entity that enters into a contract with Coastal Bend College must give notice to College if the person or an owner or operator of the business entity has been convicted of a felony. The notice must include a general description of the conduct resulting in the conviction of a felony. Furthermore, the College may terminate a contract with a person or business entity if the College determines that the person or business entity failed to give this notice or misrepresented the conduct resulting in the conviction. This requirement does not apply to a publicly-held corporation.

1.15 Debarment

Bidder confirms that neither Bidder nor its Principals are suspended, debarred, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from the award of contracts from United States (“U.S.”) federal government Procurement or Nonprocurement Programs, or are listed in the List of Parties Excluded from Federal Procurement or Nonprocurement Programs issued by the U.S. General Services Administration. “Principals” means officers, directors, owners, partners, and persons having primary management or supervisory responsibilities within a business entity (e.g. general manager, plant manager, head of a subsidiary, division or business segment, and similar positions). Bidder further certifies that it is not identified on the Texas Comptroller’s list of scrutinized companies doing business with Sudan or Iran or a list of companies known to have contracts with or to provide services or supplies to a foreign terrorist organization. Bidder will provide immediate written notification to CBC if at any time prior to award Contractor learns that this certification was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances. This certification is a material representation of fact upon which reliance will be placed when CBC executes an Agreement, if any. If it is later determined that Bidder knowingly rendered an erroneous certification, in addition to the other remedies available to CBC, CBC may terminate the Agreement, if awarded, for default by Bidder.

1.16 Invoices

Invoices shall be directed to CBC’s Accounts Payable Department. All invoices shall be itemized to include the type of good(s) and/or service(s) rendered. Vendor shall submit invoices within a timely manner during CBC’s fiscal year in which the good(s) and/or services are purchased. In accordance with Texas Government Code § 2251.021, payments are due to Vendor within forty-five (45) days after the later of the following: (1) the date CBC receives the goods under the Agreement; (2) the date the performance of the service under the Agreement is completed; or (3) the date CBC receives an invoice for the goods or service. Vendor agrees to pay any subcontractors, if any, the appropriate share of the payment received from CBC not later than the tenth (10th) day after the date Vendor receives the payment from CBC. The exceptions to payments made by CBC and/or Vendor listed in Texas Government Code § 2251.002 shall apply to this Agreement.

In addition to all other rights and remedies that CBC may have, CBC shall have the right to setoff, against any and all amounts due to Vendor by CBC, whether due under this Agreement or any other agreement between CBC and Vendor, any sums for which CBC is entitled to under this Agreement, as determined by CBC in its sole discretion, including, without limitation, sums due by Vendor to CBC as a result of indemnification obligations, warranty claims, etc.

1.17 No agency or endorsements

CBC and Vendor are independent contractors and have no power or authority to assume or create any obligation or responsibility on behalf of the other party. This Agreement shall not be construed or deemed an endorsement of a specific company or product. It is the intention of the parties that Vendor is independent of CBC and is not an employee, agent, joint venturer, or partner of CBC, and nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed as creating or establishing the relationship of employer and employee, agent, joint venturer or partner, between CBC and Vendor or HCDE and any of Vendor’s agents. Vendor agrees that CBC has no responsibility for any conduct of any of Vendor’s employees, agents, representatives, contractors, or subcontractors.

CBC reserves the right to seek clarification from any Proposer concerning any item contained in its proposal prior to final selection. Such clarification may be provided by telephone conference or personal meeting with or writing to CBC, at CBC’s sole discretion. Representations made by Proposer within its proposal will be binding on Proposer.

Except as otherwise provided in this RFP, no proposal may be changed, amended, or modified after it has been submitted to CBC. However, a proposal may be withdrawn and resubmitted at any time prior to the Submittal Deadline. No proposal may be withdrawn after the Submittal Deadline without CBC’s consent, which will be based on Proposer's submittal of a written explanation and documentation evidencing a reason acceptable to CBC, in CBC’s sole discretion.

By signing the Execution of Offer (ref. Section 2 of APPENDIX ONE) and submitting a proposal, Proposer certifies that any terms, conditions, or documents attached to or referenced in its proposal are applicable to this procurement only to the extent that they (a) do not conflict with the laws of the State of Texas or this RFP and (b) do not place any requirements on CBC that are not set forth in this RFP or in the Appendices to this RFP. Proposer further certifies that the submission of a proposal is Proposer's good faith intent to enter into an agreement with CBC as specified herein and that such intent is not contingent upon CBC's acceptance or execution of any terms, conditions, or other documents attached to or referenced in Proposer’s proposal.

The term does not include a connection based on: (A) a transaction that is subject to rate or fee regulation by a federal, state, or local governmental entity or an agency of a federal, state, or local governmental entity; (B) a transaction conducted at a price and subject to terms available to the public; or (C) a purchase or lease of goods or services from a person that is chartered by a state or federal agency and that is subject to regular examination by, and reporting to, that agency. Texas Local Government Code 176.001(3).

Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

• Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

• Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
By signing the filled-out form, you:
1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued);
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners’ share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester’s form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:
• An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
• A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
• An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
• A domestic trust as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners’ share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:
• In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
• In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
• In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a “saving clause.” Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following live items:
1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause, along with its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if he or she stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraphs 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support such exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding
What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called “backup withholding.” Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made on settlement or payment cards, and third-party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:
1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information. Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?
The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information
You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to become an S corporation, or if you no longer are a tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties
Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.
Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.
Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requestor discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requestor may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: TIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as” (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity’s name as shown on the entity’s tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a “disregarded entity.” See Regulations section 301.7701-2(b)(2)(ii). Enter the owner’s name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner’s name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity’s name on line 2. “Business name/disregarded entity name.” If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2
If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3
Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requestor may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

M—A tax exempt trust under a section 4903(b) plan or section 457(g) plan

Note: You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5
Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requestor of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requestor already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6
Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)
Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting A Business. Go to www.irs.gov/forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification
To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if Item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in Items 1 through 5 below.
1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. Other payments include payments made in the course of the requester’s trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:
- Protect your SSN.
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4775 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.
The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, the cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

Pursuant to Federal Rule (B) above, when federal funds are expended by CBC, CBC reserves the right to immediately terminate any agreement in excess of $10,000 resulting from this procurement process in the event of a breach or default of the agreement by Vendor in the event: (1) Vendor fails to meet schedules, deadlines, and/or delivery dates within the time specified in the procurement solicitation, contract, and/or purchase order; (2) Vendor fails to make any payments owed; (3) Vendor fails to otherwise perform in accordance with the contract and/or the procurement solicitation; or (4) to the greatest extent authorized by law, if an award no longer effectuates the program goals or priorities of the Federal awarding agency or CBC. CBC also reserves the right to terminate the contract immediately, with written notice to Vendor, for convenience, if CBC believes, in its sole discretion that it is in the best interest of CBC. Vendor will be compensated for work performed and accepted and goods accepted by CBC as of the termination date if the contract is terminated for convenience of CBC. Any award under this procurement process is not exclusive and CBC reserves the right to purchase goods and services from other vendors when it is in the best interest of CBC.

In accordance with the statute, contractors must be required to pay wages to laborers and mechanics at a rate not less than the prevailing wages specified in a wage determination made by the Secretary of Labor. In addition, contractors must be required to pay wages not less than once a week. The non-Federal entity must place a copy of the current prevailing wage determination issued by the Department of Labor in each solicitation. The decision to award a contract or subcontract must be conditioned upon the acceptance of the wage determination. The non-Federal entity must report all suspected or reported violations to the Federal awarding agency. The contracts must also include a provision for compliance with the Copeland “Anti-Kickback” Act (40 U.S.C. 3145), as supplemented by Department of Labor regulations (29 CFR Part 3, “Contractors and Subcontractors on Public Building or Public Work Financed in Whole or in Part by Loans or Grants from the United States”). The Act provides that each contractor or subrecipient must be prohibited from inducing, by any means, any person employed in the construction, completion, or repair of public work, to give up any part of the...
