

Coastal Bend College

PERMISSION TO AUDIT A COURSE FORM

When space is available, permission to audit a course at Coastal Bend College, may be granted by the Dean of Academics or the Dean of Workforce. Auditing students are not required to meet course prerequisites. Students auditing a course may not claim credit for the course. A student who registers for a course may not change from audit-to-credit nor credit-to-audit status after the scheduled add-drop period. Charges for auditing are the same as for enrollment for credit (See Catalog Residency Charges Section). Clinicals and courses with labs may not be audited. Auditors must abide by all student Conduct and Responsibilities including immunization requirements.

*Residency

Tuition is charged based on a student's residency status. An In-District-Student is defined as a resident of the Bee County taxing district. An Out-of-District student is defined as a resident of Texas residing outside the Bee County taxing district. To qualify for in-district tuition a student must have lived in Bee County for the 12 month period immediately preceding his/her initial enrollment at CBC. For questions on residency status, see the CBC website: www.coastalbend.edu/Residency\_Information/

If a student does not attend CBC for a period of 12 consecutive months, residency must be reestablished. Out - of -district students who want to be reclassified, should submit a written application and supporting documentation prescribed by CBC to the Admissions/Registrar's Office prior to the official census date.

Tuition is the same for both day and evening courses and charges are subject to change due to action by the State Legislature and/or the CBC Governing Board.
