SYLLABUS

ARTS 1317 - Drawing II (5007055226) 3-3
Prerequisite: ARTS 1316, or instructor approval Continuation of Drawing I using varied media, including color, in the study of natural and manmade forms with emphasis on line-value, textural surfaces, foreshortening and perspective as related to contour, gestural and modeled drawings.

TEXTBOOK:  A Guide to Drawing, Mendelowitz

*Students plagiarism on assignments will be given an automatic F on that assignment.
Second offense, will automatically drop the student from the class with an F in that class.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Include the production of finished work suitable for exhibitions and the development of a professional attitude toward drawing. Emphasis placed on the sophisticated use of gesture, contour line, and value studies relating to the studio still life and the human
to contemporary drawing trends and issues through slide presentation, CBC Gallery exhibitions, and field trips to galleries when feasible.

Students will evidence their measurable improvement in the medium through satisfactory performance in classroom, lab, and outside of class practice. Drawing problems will be related to:

1. Continued development of naturalistic imagery.
2. Development of skills and expression in dry media.
3. Development of skills and expression in wet media.
4. Development of color as a means of expression.
5. Development of sketchbook
6. Acquire understanding of nomenclature of the medium as evidenced by short quizzes.

TEACHING METHODS:

1. Demonstrations
2. Slide lectures
3. Class work
4. Use of various still life materials
5. Live models
6. Work with students individually
EVALUATION METHODS:

1. Successful completion of assignments
2. Development of personal style, aided by research on art movements or artists.
3. Attendance - a total of no more than 3 absences without special permission from the instructor. Without permission the final grade will drop. 5 absences will result in a drop from the course.
4. Understanding of terminology as evidenced in short quizzes.
5. Participation in student exhibition at end of semester.

EVALUATION PROCEDURES:

1. Originality and creativity
2. Productivity
3. Comprehensive ability
4. Effort and enthusiasm

BIBLIOGRAPHY:

Read art magazines at the Coastal Bend College, Grady Hogue Learning Center; "Art News", "Art in America" and "Art Forum." A good selection of art books, and audiovisual materials available. It is the students responsibility to use these to aid in class work as well as in developing a personal style.
